At the rate poll tax receipts are being issued at the BCD office, Hamlin is going to have more than its share of second class citizens — ones who can not vote.

Since the voters of Texas turned down the amendment to eliminate the poll tax as a requirement to vote, the $1.75 must still be paid if you want to vote in the City and School elections, the Democratic Primary and general election for County and State offices, and any special election that might be called during the coming year.

If you want to be just a part-time citizen you can save the $1.75 and register later in the year so that you may vote only in the federal elections.

Because the filing deadline for candidates is Feb. 3 and the poll tax deadline is January 31 there is no way to know just how many contested races there will be on the County and State level before the poll tax deadline Friday night.

Among those already announced for office will be a race for County Commissioner in this precinct, a race for governor and there is talk of several races on the County level.

If you have not paid your poll tax yet you have only TODAY AND TOMORROW to become a FIRST CLASS CITIZEN.

While in Austin this past week end for the Texas Press Association's Winter meeting the wife and I attended a coffee Friday afternoon at the Governor's Mansion. With the exception of still having his arm in a cast, Governor John Connally look real good considering his ordeal in November.

You have only two days left to save 50c a ticket on the annual BCD banquet set for February 7. Every citizen who is concerned with the growth of Hamlin should at least attend this annual banquet — if for no other reason than to help encourage officers and directors of the organization who give freely of their time for you.

The citizens of Hamlin who give up part of their free time and part of their time that they could be using in their business need the encouragement of their fellow citizens.

If you and your wife are planning to attend the banquet but you haven't gotten around to buying your ticket yet, remember that you can save $1.00 on the two tickets if you hurry.

I read somewhere the other day that it is not the high cost of living that is getting people down, but the cost of living high.

REQUESTS FOR CONSERVATION WORK NEEDS TO BE FILED NOW

Farmers who have been considering soil and water conservation practices to be established on their farms with Agricultural Conservation Program next spring and summer should file their requests for program assistance as soon as possible. J. E. Nix, Chairman, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, has suggested. The 1954 ACP was drawn up several months ago, and applications are being accepted at the ASCS County Office.

The Chairman explained that the sooner the application is filed, the easier it will be to obtain approval of the practice.

POLL TAX SALES BECOME BRISK AS END NEARS

The poll tax business is finally becoming rather brisk at the office of the Hamlin Board of Community Development according to Mrs. Ned Moore, secretary, who is handling the sale this year.

On Monday 165 receipts had been purchased and by Wednesday the figure had risen to 300. Last year the total number sold was 168.

Only two days remain for those who have not purchased their poll tax receipts. Purchase should be made as soon as possible to avoid the inconvenience of the last minute rush.

Former Resident Makes Hit with 'The Gag Gag'

A song, "The Gag Gag", written by Mrs. Ray Smith, the former Pauline Smart, a native of Hamlin, has gained popularity since it was first presented by Mrs. Smith, her husband, and 11 year daughter, Rhonda, on Mr. Smith's Cisco radio program. They received so many requests that it became necessary for the family to go to Nashville to have a recording made.

The first supply of 100 records is exhausted and more requests keep coming in. More records have been ordered.

The record concerns the publicity which resulted by Eastland's mayor, Don Pierson proclamation that smoking be banned in Eastland and the later confession that it was a publicity gag.

Mrs. Smith was graduated from high school at McCaulley. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Smart, now live near Lubbock.

His parents are Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Smith, 845 S.E. Ave. A, Hamlin.

THE MINISTER SPEAKS—

A THOUGHT FOR THE YOUTH

by Rev. Cecil Stowe
pastor, Church of the Nazarene
Phone SP 4-2469

Moses was reminded that he must "Build according to the pattern given thee in the mount." There are certain things that are absolutely essential in the building of Christian character. To build without these is to risk moral and spiritual collapse.

Dr. E. S. Phillips told the following story about an outstanding brush company. The Co. decided to build new buildings to house its offices and factories under the same roof. A beautiful and large building several stories high was erected. One of the executive officials picked out a nice convenient place in the building for his office. But one of the main girders of the building ran through that area, which would mark one corner of it. It was decided to cut the girder out of the room. The office was finished and everyone going through the building commented on the beauty and convenience of the office more than any other room in the building. When the building was finished they put a large reservoir on top of the building just over this office. When the reservoir was half full of water there was a mighty crash like a tornado or an earthquake. The area where the girder was left out collapsed and much of the building was wrecked and many people lost their lives. Dr. Phillips stressed necessity girders in government, home, church and in the Sunday school.

In this message I would like es.

Brothers— together — helping one another. We are our brother's keeper and his helper. Comfort, cheer, and encouragement should be given to each other.

There should be a willingness on the part of each to sacrifice for the other.

A Divine Example was sent to us, and these are His words: "This is my commandment, that ye love one another, as I have loved you. Greater love hath no man

than this, that a man lay down

his life for his friends."

You are invited to attend

church Sunday to learn more of the One who gave

us this commandment.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny, the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

FAIRVIEW NEWS

By MRS. ELMER JOINER

Another Monday morning has rolled around without any moisture, we are just wondering how long the little wheat can survive the high winds and cold weather without a drink. The weather has been unseasonably warm, but since daylight a norther has blown in that feels as if it might change things.

We were real proud of the attendance of our people at the Workers Conference, held in Stamford First Church, last Tuesday night. Ten members attended, which is one fourth of the whole membership, we were that we were the only church body there that had one fourth of their whole membership. Of course it is to be considered that we could have been the smallest one there. Small or not, we are still proud of our church, we keep all of our obligations up, such as missions of all kinds, we were proud of our Lottie Moon Christmas Offering and this morning we mailed a check to the March of Dimes for $25.00, so we can still brag a little, even if we are few in number.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Murff left Thursday, for Phoenix, Ariz., where they attend graduating exercises for their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Murff, who will receive their Masters Degree from the Institute of Foreign Trade, in that city. Mrs. Murff also reports that she hopes to rock the grand baby, which they have never seen.

Mr. and Mrs. Winson Gray spent last weekend in Alvarado, Texas, returning Monday, with his sister, Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Skipper. They were accompanied by his parents,

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Gray, Anson.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Henry attended funeral services in Rule, Sunday afternoon for Mrs. J. M. Betts, who was one hundred years old. Sunday's paper carried the write up and Mrs. Betts' picture, and it seems as if she had spent a very wonderful one hundred years.

Mrs. Tanner and Larry, spent Friday night and Saturday, with Rev. and Mrs. Leverett and children. Saturday they worked on their house, which they are remodeling, making a room from their carport.

It seems that the same old bug was busy Sunday, since both Kristy Leverett and Keenan Wright, went home with high temperature.

Tuesday visitors of the Drake family were Mrs. Viola Woodruff, Vivian, Texas and her sister, Mrs. Virginia Scott, of Anson, Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Bud Scott, Albany, and Mrs. Monroe Potter, Anson, were guests.

Weekend visitors of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Henry were their son, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Henry and Jo, from Elgin, Texas, who were enroute home from a visit with their daughter at Higgins, Texas, Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Clois Henry, Snyder, came over to be with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rosenbaum are keeping their fingers crossed hoping to get a telephone, in the near future. They have been without one since moving where they are, no caring for an Anson phone since all their friends and business is back Hamlin way, and after such a long wait, they are thinking they will finally get one.

Sunday afternoon, Mrs. Jack Wicker and daughters visited with the Goodwins.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Pyor ate supper with Mr. and Mrs. Winson Gray, last Thursday night. Mrs. Pyor is a sister of Mr. Gray.

Another old landmark in our community is about to disappear. The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fomby, for many years, has been sold to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bristow, who have lived south of Road Creek many years. The farm did not sell, just the house, and it will be moved to Hamlin, as soon as the Bristows buy a lot to move it on.

Mr. and Mrs. Winson Gray spent the day Sunday, with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rosenbaum. Mr. and Mrs. David Higgins and two sons, Abilene, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Wainwright and Jimmy. Sunday afternoon visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Eli Bruner, of Hamlin.

We are sorry to report that Mr. Robert Rhoton has spent the last week in Hendrick Hospital in Abilene, but is hoping to be home soon.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Jones visited with Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Joiner a while Sunday afternoon.

The church will observe Family Night, Jan. 31, at the Oil Mill Guest House, in Hamlin, with a supper. We hope to have a nice crowd, ladies will bring either a salad or dessert, other things will be furnished.

MUCH WORK YET TO BE DONE IF SCREWORMS TO CEASE

UVALDE. — Vigorous participation in the screwworm eradication program by Texas farmers and ranchers will be necessary if the Southwest is to become screwworm-free in 1964.

Dolph Briscoe Jr. of Uvalde, said detection of screwworm-infested animals and collection of larvae samples will be even more important this year than it has been in the past. Briscoe is president of the Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation, which spearheaded the drive to collect $3,000,000 from livestockmen to get the eradication program underway nearly two years ago.

Briscoe noted that several weeks have elapsed with no screwworm cases being reported in the five-state eradication area. He cautioned, however, that during cold weather, screwworm flies in the pupae stage can remain embedded in the soil for extended periods; when they emerge during warm spells, new rounds of infestations could result.

A single, undetected, unreported case could set the eradication program back for several months, Briscoe said.

"We must always keep up our guard when dealing with this insect," Briscoe warned. "The screwworm fly has shown a remarkable ability of taking advantage of any lapses in vigilance by livestockmen."

He urged livestock producers to watch their animals closely and treat cuts or scratches that could become infested. After several larvae have been collected from infested wounds and mailed to the Mission laboratory for positive identification, wounds should be treated with insecticide.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN — Capitol talk is centering around Texas' new double-standard for voter qualification.

There's a lot of speculation and some concern in political circles.

Ratification by South Dakota will place into effect a Federal constitutional amendment abolishing the poll tax requirement for voting in future federal elections.

1. Texans who want to vote for state and local, as well as federal officials, still must have poll tax receipts or appropriate exemptions.
2. Those who are content to vote for president, vice president, U. S. senator and congressman only, won't have to pay. But still they must get a free poll tax receipt from their tax collector.

The new "registration" requirement for federal elections take effect after the U. S. General Services Administration certifies that the amendment is officially part of the federal constitution.

Thirty days will be allowed voters, after the amendment goes into effect to obtain the special receipts stamped "poll tax not paid". These "tickets" admit one to vote in federal elections. After this year, they must be obtained during the regular poll tax period of October 1-January 31.

For tax collectors and election officials these additional headaches will be presented:

Separate poll lists must be compiled for those who have paid the poll tax and those who have not; non-paying voters must get a ballot containing only the offices and propositions which they are eligible to vote on; all propositions except federal offices must be "locked out" on voting machines; and election returns must show separately those voting on free receipts.

Legal experts think the state law passed in anticipation of the federal amendment's ratification takes care of most emergencies and will prevent chaos, if not confusion. Detailed instructions soon will be sent to county tax collectors by Secretary of State Crawford Martin.

Gov. John Connally, meanwhile, warned Texans that failure to pay the poll tax commits them to "only half a vote in the 1964 elections." Connally joined groups on all sides of the political fences in the final week's campaign to pump up lagging payments.

CONGRESSIONAL RACES UNDISTURBED — Governor Connally anticipates no disruption in congressional district races this year, since the U. S. Supreme Court recessed until February 17 without taking action on pending redistricting cases.

Filing deadline for Texas primaries is February 3. Connally and other state officers do not think the high court will interfere with election machinery already in progress.

Last October a Houston federal court held Texas congressional district boundaries unconstitutional since they are not based on equal population. Republicans brought the suit seeking to recarve the districts in the interest of metropolitan areas. The Houston decision, which has since been stayed pending the state's appeal, ordered all 23 congressmen to run statewide unless the districts are equalized on the basis of population.

APPOINTMENTS ANNOUNCED — Former Secretary of State Tom Reavley of Austin was named by Governor Connally as judge of the newly-created 167th district court of Travis County which goes into operation on June 1.

Among other recent appointments by the governor are:

Dr. John J. McKetta Jr., dean of the University of Texas College of Engineering, to serve on the Southern Interstate Nuclear Board.

Judge Victor H. Lindsay, 72nd District Court, Lubbock, as presiding judge for the Ninth Administrative District, to succeed the late Judge Luther Gribble of Childress.

C. E. Knolle, Jim Wells County dairyman, as chairman of the Texas Animal Health Commission, succeeding Clayton Puckett of Fort Stockton who remains on the commission.

John M. Stemmons of Dallas, re-appointed as a director of the Dallas County Flood Control District.

INVESTIGATING CONTINUING — A half dozen state investigators are looking into activities of Corpus Christi promoter Paul Amos Sandblom, who is charged with dealing in unregistered securities.

Additional charges may be filed against the South Texas financier, according to State Securities Commissioner William King. He has four agents combing the tangled financial affairs of Sandblom, 39. And the state auditor has assigned two more investigators.

A court-appointed receiver of the bankrupt promoter's estate estimates he took in over $25,000,000 but now has assets of only $27,000.

TEXAS COURTS — Court of Criminal Appeals has ordered new trials for two men who had served a total of 43 years in Texas prisons.

Decision was in line with a Supreme Court ruling that all indigent persons accused of crimes are entitled to court-appointed counsel. Texas Law has required designation of such counsel only in capital cases.

Several similar appeals already are before the court here.

State Supreme Court heard arguments as to whether the Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission can prevent use of nets and seines in Galveston, Trinity, East and West Bays, in view of a 1957 law apparently permitting use of trammel nets there.

Lower courts have held for fishermen opposing a 1949 commission order against netting.

Supreme Court also agreed to permit a coastal hospital district to request clarification of a state constitutional amendment authorizing such districts to be created by statute. Sweeney Hospital District wants to determine if citizens voting on district bonds have to render personal property for taxation.

Three contempt of legislature cases growing out of investigation of Southwest Conference basketball point-fixing allegations and another arising from slant hole oil probes were postponed by an Austin district court until March.

Texas Civil Judicial Council reported that two-thirds of the nearly 200 State district judges in Texas receive salary supplements from County governments in addition to their $12,000 annual pay from the state.

Supplements range from $600 in some rural areas to $8,000 in Harris County, where district judges make $20,000 a year.

WATER HEARINGS PUT OFF — Hearings on four Brazos River watershed reservoir proposals have been delayed by Texas Water Commission until March 23 to await additional engineering studies.

Projects are: Proctor Reservoir on the Leon River near Comanche; Belton Reservoir on the Leon River in Bell County; Stillhouse Hollow Reservoir on the Lampasas River in Bell County; and Somerville Reservoir on Yegua Creek in Washington County.

Commission agreed to permit diversion of 600 acre feet of water a year from the city of Hamilton from the Proctor Reservoir.

CANDIDATES FILING — With the filing deadline closing in, most statewide incumbents (and some of their opponents) have announced their election plans.

Among those whose hats are in the ring are: Governor Connally (and his GOP opponent C. G. Weakley Jr. of Dallas); Lt. Gov. Preston Smith (opposed by Albert Fuentes Jr. of San Antonio and Republican Horace Houston of Dallas); Agriculture Commissioner John C. White (opposed by Millard Shivers of Waco); State Treasurer Jesse James; Comptroller Robert Calvert; Railroad Commissioner Jim C. Langdon; Supreme Court Associate Justice Ruel C. Walker; Supreme Court Associate Justice Robert W. Hamilton; and Court of Criminal Appeals Judge K. K. Woodley.

Also: Democrat John Van Cronkhite and Republicans George Bush, Dr. Milton Davis and Dr. Robert Morris, all of whom want to dethrone U. S. Sen. Ralph Yarborough who preferred to file late for reelection.

Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr is another who chose to put off announcing his re-election plan until near deadline.

SHORT SNORTS — Benton Musslewhite of Lufkin announced his candidacy for congress, opposing Congressman John Dowdy of Athens in the Democratic primary. . . Thomas Rote of San Antonio will run for the Republican congressional nomination against John O'Connell both to take on Congressman Henry B. Gonzalez in November. . . State Reps. Malcolm McGregor of El Paso and George Cook of Odessa will contest for the Democratic nomination against GOP Congressman Ed Foreman, Odessa. . . A new Laredo school, United High School, is being praised by civil defense officials. It is one of the first underground schools in the nation constructed solely with local funds — and was constructed at lower costs than standard structures.

Governor Connally may visit

it Washington after making a speech to North American paper industry representatives in New York on Feb. 25. . . State Board of Education set a Feb. 8 hearing on the American Civil Liberties Union's appeal from a Houston school board loyalty oath requirement for users of school buildings after Education Commissioner Dr. J. W. Edgar held the board had authority to exact the oath. . .

Glad you like it fellows. So do the member-owners of the Midwest Electric Cooperative.

Larger lines carry heavier loads to serve the increased demands for electricity by commercial, domestic and industrial consumers. This calls for long range planning as well as day to day efficiency in the operation of this member-owner electric system.

The Midwest Electric Cooperative pioneered rural electrification in the nine county area it serves.

EXTENSION SERVICE STUDIES USE OF STUBESTROL IN FEEDING

COLLEGE STATION. — Treating feeder cattle with stilbestrol from birth until they are slaughtered may be practical if the animals belong to the same owner during the entire period, says Uel D. Thompson, animal husbandman with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

The beef cattle specialists says that increased gains have resulted from the use of hormones during the nursing, grazing, and feedlot stages.

However, he points out that there are some disadvantages during the whole period by the if the animals are not owned same owner. Calves on test in Texas have shown higher weaning weights when implanted with stilbestrol but this extra weight might be undesirable from a price per pound standpoint if the animals were sold as stocker or feeder calves.

According to Texas research hormone implanting of animals that were implanted during the nursing, grazing and feeding periods gained 663 pounds during a 461-day period. Those receiving only two implants gained 657 pounds, those with only one implant gained 616 pounds, and animals with no implants gained 595 pounds during the period, says Thompson.

It, therefore, appears advantageous to implant steers during all three phases if the animals are under the same ownership, concludes Thompson.

TRACTOR DEALER HUNTS FOR EARLIEST FARMALL

Buie's, farm machinery dealers in Stamford for more than 35 years are looking for a certain old regular Farmall tractor, sold by the old Penick Hughes Co. in Stamford for the late A. J. French in September 1923, being the first row crop tractor delivered in Central West Texas.

STAMFORD PRODUCTION CREDIT ASSOCIATION OBSERVING 30TH ANNIVERSARY THIS YEAR

STAMFORD — The Stamford Production Credit Association, now observing its 30th anniversary as an agricultural financing institution, loaned a total of $10,606,771 in 1963 to its farmer and rancher stockholder-borrowers in an eight-county area of West Texas.

In a year-end report of activities, General Manager J. L. Hill Jr. of Stamford reported the association's 1963 loan volume increased more than $1,500,000 over the 1962 figure of $9,085,340. Association assets total $5,981,988 and net worth is $1,325,195.

Agricultural outlook for 1964 is dependent, as always, on moisture, or the lack of it. Hill pointed out, "Moisture conditions are fair, but little grain has provided very little grazing during the winter because of limited moisture and cold weather.

Insects have become a major factor in cotton production in this territory. Hill said, "It is hoped with the early 1963 harvest, resulting in earlier destruction of cotton stalks, the insect population will decline in 1964," he declared.

"Our 1963 loan volume was a new record for the association," Hill continued, "and it is expected that it will continue to increase in 1964." He pointed out that the number of farm and ranch operators served by the association also increased during 1963 despite the continuing decline of agricultural operators.

The Stamford Production Credit Association is owned and operated in its entirety by 1,133 farmer and rancher stockholder - borrowers in Dickens, Haskell, Jones, Kent, King, Knox, Shackelford and Stonewall counties.

The association was chartered on January 10, 1934, and since that date has loaned more than $130,858,000 to farmers and ranchers in its territory.

"We have but one reason for our existence," Hill explained, "and that is to provide a dependable and adequate source of agricultural credit at the lowest possible cost." The 36 associations serving all 254 Texas counties receive their loan funds through the monthly sale of debentures on the nation's commercial money market by the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank of Houston, discount agency for the Texas associations.

Accent on Health
J. E. PEAVY, M.D., Commissioner of Health

AUSTIN — "A lone man's companion . . . a sad man's cordial . . . and a chilly man's fire . . . there's no herb like unto it under the canopy of heaven."

That's James Russell Lowell's personal reflections toward tobacco or cigarettes.

But medical science points out some disconcerting parallels of smoking to health. With this in mind, the Division of Cancer and Heart of the Texas State Department of Health is determined that today's generation should have the facts when confronted with the decision of smoke or not to smoke.

A first and basic point is that smoking is a habit — similar to an addiction. "The habitual use of tobacco," according to the recent report to the Surgeon General by the Advisory Committee, is related primarily to psychological and social drives, reinforced and perpetuated by the pharmacological actions of nicotine on the central nervous system.

Secondly, teenagers should be aware of the relationship between smoking and health. Lung cancer, heart and circulatory diseases are linked to the smoking habit. And statistics show that these diseases increase in proportion to the number of cigarettes smoked per day.

Teenagers are challenged to sties show that these diseases add it all up. A smoke lasts about six minutes, but cuts ten minutes off your lifetime.

Teenagers are further advised that the habit decreases physical endurance and ability, slows thinking processes and discolors fingers and teeth. Inevitably, the question arises . . . why do teen agers start smoking anyway?

Teenagers say, according to recent studies, they are lured by the persuasive voice of advertisers. They also start because the gang does it, in search of security and stability and in imitation of people they admire.

Parental example appears to be an important contributing example. When both parents smoke, a teenager stands a 40 percent chance of taking up the habit. But when neither

Witnesses' Hold Training Session

Jehovah's Witnesses' 3-day training program in Llano, Texas, was climaxed Sunday when H. A. Fetzik supervisor, spoke on the subject, "The Bible Triumphs in a Scientific World."

In speaking to the 458 assembled, Fetzik said, "While science improves the living standards, it creates a neurotic age of anxiety and tension."

"The Bible," Fetzik said, "triumphs over science in that life has always existed in the Creator; it gives the solution to life's problems today, and it sets forth God's kingdom as the means of man's eternal blessings."

C. W. Sarakin, circuit supervisor, in his closing talk, "Speaking the Truth Unites," said, "The truth alone unites mankind and leads to salvation." The assembly carried the theme, "Feed My Little Sheep."

The analysis, that was made of the 15 congregations, revealed a "personal schedule" was the general weakness. It was shown by talks, demonstrations and illustrations that a personal schedule will make room for regular ministerial activity and meeting attendance, said W. Robert Edwards of Hamlin presiding minister of the Stamford Congregation.

Texas Circuit No. 12 covers and are from Wichita Falls to Fredericksburg and from Abilene to Mineral Wells.

PHILOSOPHER SEES THREAT TO NATIONAL SECURITY IN POSSIBLE TELEVISION STRIKE

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route 1 views a certain possibility with alarm this week. We guess that's what he's doing.

Dear editor:
Whether we cut the national budget or not, whether we get a tax cut, whether medicare passes, whether the Panama situation is settled, whether France recognizes Red China or not . . . these things pale into insignificance when you stop to consider the biggest question in this country.

It is: do television announcers have the right to strike and shut off television?

According to an item I read on an inside page of a big daily paper which I found on the road near my house where somebody had left it after using it to lie on while getting a jack under his car to fix a flat, which incidentally shows how a big newspaper can underplay the news — putting item like this on an inside page — there's a union of television announcers and they are talking about striking for higher pay.

A spokesman for the television industry said such a strike could shut down national television for several days.

This is what I'm talking about. I do not believe the American people can survive several days without television.

A guns-mokless, Wagon/rainless, As the World Turnsless week is beyond the human capacity to endure.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Farm Bureau Week to Open Member Drive

WACO — "Farm Bureau Week" in Texas will mark the beginning of an intensive campaign to boost membership in the state's largest farm organization, according to Wayne Little, director of organization for the Texas Farm Bureau. Three area-wide membership rallies will be held Feb. 3 in Lubbock, Dallas, and San Antonio to kick off the organization's 1964 enrollment drive.

Gov. John Connally has designated the week of Feb. 3-8 as "Farm Bureau Week" to point up the importance of agriculture to the over-all economy and the necessity of having "an informed, prosperous, and organized agriculture in our state."

Little said that drive plans are aimed at hitting a new high membership record this year which will make the twelfth consecutive year for the organization to gain members. Another goal, he said, is to regain the standing of being the largest state Farm Bureau in the South and fourth largest in the nation, a position that was lost to Alabama last year when that organization edged ahead of Texas in membership.

Purpose of the three rallies is to provide the inspiration and information to accomplish the goals, he said. All county Farm Bureau leaders and volunteer membership workers are being encouraged to attend the meeting nearest them.

According to one scientist, the human brain could store about 50 times more information than is contained in the 9,000 volumes of the Library of Congress.

Coming Beverage Quality Evaporated Milk

A new evaporated milk tastily enough to drink has been developed by the U. S. Department of Agriculture and is now being considered for commercial production.

It can be made at a concentration of either two, or three times that of whole milk and dilutes to a high-quality beverage resembling fresh milk in flavor and color.

Select Vegetables For Their Vitamins:

To get the most vitamins for your vegetable dollar, remember these tips from food economists in the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Agricultural Research Service:

You get several times as much vitamin A value from bright-orange, mature carrots as from pale-colored, young ones. Even so, young carrots are a good source of vitamin A.

Friendship HD

The Friendship Home Demonstration Club met Friday in the home of Mrs. Fred Carpenter with eleven members present.

Mrs. O. L. Rich joined the club as a new member. The program was presented by Mrs. M. S. Johnson on what to do in case of an automobile accident.

Mrs. Bonnie Dingham gave the opening exercise on famous people who were born in January.

Mrs. J. E. McCoy, council delegate, gave the council report. She was also elected as delegate to the district meeting to be held in Crowell in April.

Mrs. Carpenter served cake and coffee.

Choose deep-orange varieties of sweet potatoes for highest vitamin A value.

The dark-green leaves of leafy vegetables are richer in nutrients, particularly vitamin A and C, than light-green leaves. The coarse outer leaves for head lettuce contain higher concentrations of vitamins than the inner, tender leaves. Use the outer leaves whenever possible.

Peppers are high in vitamins A and C.

If the tops of beets are attached and still tender when you buy them, cook them. They are rich in vitamin A.

Turnip greens, kale, and collards are good sources of riboflavin as well as of vitamin A and C. Lima beans, peas, and young cowpeas (including black-eye peas) contain appreciable amounts of thiamine and protein. The leafy parts of collard greens, turnip greens and kale have much more vitamin A value than the stems or midribs do. So, if you remove the fibrous stems and midribs acceptable to the family, the loss in nutrients is not serious.

Make full use of vine ripened tomatoes in summer when they are plentiful and inexpensive. Tomatoes that ripen in the vine out-of-doors in summer sunlight are twice as rich in vitamin C as those grown in green houses in winter.

Vitamins A and C are needed regularly for growth and health body tissues, says Mrs. Newberry. And vegetables are a primary source of these nutrients. Other suggestions:

In trimming cabbage, remember that the core, as well as the leaves, is high in vitamin C. Broccoli leaves have much more vitamin A than the stalks or flower buds. If broccoli leaves are tender when you get them home, plan to eat them. Keep them cool and moist until they're ready for use.

Now that everybody's standing, let's all go to the Buick Sports Car Rally.

Really.

It would be a shame to waste this chance to drive one of Buick's lively sport models, wouldn't it? Especially considering your Buick dealer's so close, and the price is so nice. That's what the Sports Car Rally is all about. And they're all luxurious enough to make you wonder why anybody'd settle for a two-seater. A finely tuned production 340 hp Wildcat with a skilled driver scored the highest miles per gallon in the economy test of Class 1—high performance V-8's—at the Pure Oil Performance Trials at Daytona Beach, Florida. (So who's surprised? Not Wildcat owners.)

When your mind's not on your driving, you're dangerous! Your car can't think. That's your department—the driver's. So think about this. When your mind is on anything else but your driving, anything can happen—including an accident! Last year, nearly 37,000 Americans died on our highways. Many might still be alive if they or others had kept their minds on the road. Driving demands your full attention, so stay alert—and stay alive!

Where traffic laws are strictly enforced, deaths go down!

Diamond cutting dates back to the discovery in 1465 that diamonds could be polished by diamond dust.

News and Views . . .

and what have you

by BOB CRAIG

At the rate poll tax receipts are being issued at the BCD office, Hamlin is going to have more than its share of second class citizens — ones who can not vote.

Since the voters of Texas turned down the amendment to eliminate the poll tax as a requirement to vote, the $1.75 must still be paid if you want to vote in the City and School elections, the Democratic Primary and general election for County and State offices, and any special election that might be called during the coming year.

If you want to be just a part-time citizen you can save the $1.75 and register later in the year so that you may vote only in the federal elections.

Because the filing deadline for candidates is Feb. 3 and the poll tax deadline is January 31 there is no way to know just how many contested races there will be on the County and State level before the poll tax deadline Friday night.

Among those already announced for office will be a race for County Commissioner in this precinct, a race for governor and there is talk of several races on the County level.

If you have not paid your poll tax yet you have on TODAY AND TOMORROW to become a FIRST CLASS CITIZEN.

While in Austin this past week end for the Texas Press Association's Winter meeting the wife and I attended a coffee Friday afternoon at the Governor's Mansion. With the exception of still having his arm in a cast, Governor John Connally looked real good considering his ordeal in November.

You have only two days left to save 50c a ticket on the annual BCD banquet set for February 7. Every citizen who is concerned with the growth of Hamlin should at least attend this annual banquet — if for no other reason than to help encourage officers and directors of the organization who give freely of their time for you.

The citizens of Hamlin who give up part of their free time and part of their time that they could be using in their business need the encouragement of their fellow citizens.

If you and your wife are planning to attend the banquet but you haven't gotten around to buying your ticket yet, remember that you can save $1.00 on the two tickets if you hurry.

I read somewhere the other day that it is not the high cost of living that is getting people down, but the cost of living high.

REQUESTS FOR CONSERVATION WORK NEEDS TO BE FILED NOW

Farmers who have been considering soil and water conservation practices to be established on their farms with Agricultural Conservation Program next spring and summer should file their requests for program assistance as soon as possible, J. E. Nix, Chairman, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee, has suggested. The 1964 ACP was drawn up several months ago, and applications are being accepted at the ASCS County Office.

The Chairman explained that the sooner the application is filed, the easier it will be to obtain approval of the practice.

MAX CARRIKER ENTERS RACE

Max Carriker of Roby has filed as a candidate for Congress from the 17th district with the Jones County Democratic Chairman.

Carriker has served three terms in the Texas House of Representatives from the 80th district.

He is seeking the office now held by Omar Burleson who has filed for re-election.

Aspermont Post Office Seeking Bids For New Building

The Post Office Department is seeking competitive bids to build and lease new post office quarters for the Aspermont, Post Office, Postmaster General John A. Gronowski announced yesterday.

Under the Department's Lease Construction Program, the site selected at the southwest corner of the 7th and Washington Streets intersection will be assigned to the successful bidder, who will purchase the property, construct the building according to departmental specifications and lease it to the Post Office Department for a basic period of 10 years, with options to renew the lease for an additional 20 years.

The Department's capital investment will be limited substantially to postal equipment. The building will remain under private ownership with the owner paying local real estate taxes. Postal space in the present unit will be made available for other purposes.

Bidding documents will be available on or about February 5, and may be obtained from V. E. Bell, Real Estate Office, P. O. Box 1386, Lubbock, Texas 79408, or by calling his Lubbock office at PO 5-6318, extension 33. Mr. Bell will supply bidding forms, building specifications, lease provisions and other information. Bids must be submitted to Mr. Bell before 2:00 P. M., March 6, 1964.

POLL TAX SALES BECOME BRISK AS END NEARS

The poll tax business is finally becoming rather brisk at the office of the Hamlin Board of Community Development according to Mrs. Ned Moore, secretary, who is handling the sale this year.

On Monday 165 receipts had been purchased and by Wednesday the figure had risen to 300. Last year the total number sold was 168.

Only two days remain for those who have not purchased their poll tax receipts. Purchase should be made as soon as possible to avoid the inconvenience of the last minute rush.

ANNUAL REPORT SHOWS 104TH DISTRICT COURT HAD BUSY YEAR

The 104th District Court at Anson of which Owen B. Thomas is the judge, handled 270 cases last year — just one less than the total number filed during the year, the annual report of District Clerk W. L. McDonald revealed.

This compares very favorably with activity in other counties and is much better than the record of some courts. Judge Thomas also presides in Taylor County which has two courts, the 104th and the 42nd with J. R. Black the judge.

Divorce cases led in business handled. At the beginning of the year there were 60 suits pending. Seventy additional ones filed for a total of 130. Fifty-four divorces were granted and 39 petitions were dismissed. No petitions were denied. At year's end, there remained 37 untried cases.

Second largest item of business was criminal, with a total of 131 cases on the docket, 53 of these having been carried over from the previous year.

There were eight cases heard by jury and 53 by the judge alone. Dismissals totaled 28. One annulment case was filed during the year but this was dismissed.

The year started with 68 civil cases awaiting to be heard. Eighty-seven new petitions were filed. Six jury trials were held while 38 were heard by Judge Thomas. Dismissals

Paving to Start in Spring On 'Ball Park' Streets

The paving of "Ballpark Street" came a step nearer this week when the City of Hamlin authorized the publication of a Notice to Prospective Purchasers to the effect that a portion of the cost of paving would be assessed against the owners and their property abutting the nine streets set for paving.

Contract has been let with the Abilene firm of Hayter Construction Company to pave Southwest Fifth, commonly called "Ballpark Street" from South Central to Ave. C; one block of Avenue F running in front of the Hamlin Convalescent Center; and three blocks of Southwest Avenue E, running from Fifth street of second, connecting with existing pavement.

Work on the paving is expected to start sometime in March or April and will include curb and gutters.

The engineering work on all of the paving is being done by Freeze, Nichols and Andress, consulting engineers of Fort Worth.

The paving program was authorized by the City Council as part of the City Improvement program set up by them last fall. The city has issued warrants to cover the cost of

Work on the paving is expected to start sometime in March or April and will include curb and gutters.

The engineering work on all of the paving is being done by Freeze, Nichols and Andress, consulting engineers of Fort Worth.

The paving program was authorized by the City Council as part of the City Improvement program set up by them last fall. The city has issued warrants to cover the cost of block of Avenue F running in front of the Hamlin Convalescent Center; and three blocks of Southwest Avenue E, running from Fifth street of second, connecting with existing pavement.

Work on the paving is expected to start sometime in March or April and will include curb and gutters.

this improvement program and the city's share of the cost of the paving will be met from this source.

The program will be handled in the same way as the city's last paving program in that it will be an assessment program whereby the property owners will be assessed their share of the cost and those who do not pay their share will have liens placed against their property.

When the engineering work is finished on the nine blocks and the costs of paving is established for each property owner the city will notify them and a public hearing will be held. No date has been set for this hearing yet.

Piperettes Hold on To District Lead by Stopping Haskell

The Hamlin Piperettes never gave up the lead in the game with the Haskell girls in Haskell Friday night scoring 56 to their opponents 45.

At the end of first quarter the Piperettes led 14-11 shooting a 75% quarter despite the fact that they lost the ball seven times.

In the second quarter only two balls were lost but the forwards found a lid on the basket scoring on only three shots of fifteen for 20%.

At halftime the Piperettes maintained a three point lead with a score of 21-18.

The third quarter the Piperettes shot 55% from the floor but played with mistakes again and lost the ball five times due to mistakes. When the quarter ended the score stood 36-32.

In the fourth quarter the Hamlin girls shot 54% scoring on seven of 13 shots. The Haskell girls almost matched the quarter scoring by sinking six of 12 for 50% thus displaying their best percentage for the night. The lead was increased by the Piperettes hitting 5 of 6 charity shots during a semi-stall. When the smoke settled the final score stood 56-45 with the Piperettes going through the first half of the district race undefeated.

Barbara Lakey led the scoring shooting 56% from the floor and making 34 points followed by Judy Jenkins at a 50% pace throwing 19 points from the floor.

The guards turned in a good performance in holding Haskell down to 32% shooting percentage while stealing the ball eight times. Also noticeable were Judy Jenkins raking in 10 offensive rebounds and Kay Hodnett pulling down 9 defensive rebounds. In going through 5 district opponents undefeated, the forwards are averaging 52.6 points per game while the unpublicized guards are averaging giving up only 37.0 points per game.

DEALER SETS JOHN DEERE DAY HERE WEDNESDAY EVENING

New models of the 1964 John Deere Farm Equipment line will be the feature attraction of John Deere Day, now set for Wednesday, Feb. 5, 7:30 p.m. at Primary School Cafeteria.

Weldon Carlton, Hamlin's John Deere dealer, says that there are number of new models for 1964, including tractors, combines, pickers, Gyramors, spreaders, and many others. Everyone with an interest in farming is invited to attend the program, enjoy free refreshments, see the new machinery in action on film, and make arrangements for a free demonstration at his own farm.

"We feel this will be another big year for John Deere," says Mr. Carlton. "Farming technique change every year, and John Deere continues to build equipment designed to meet those changes. Next year will certainly be no exception."

Included on the film program is entertainment by Cliff Arquette (Mount Ivy's Charlie Weaver), Donna Douglas of the Beverly Hillbillies, Margaret Hamilton and banjo player comedian Gene Sheldon. Shari is forced to fight with tooth and nail to escape the frightening bonds of matrimony.

A feature of the coming show will be a special preview of the smallest tractor ever built by John Deere, the "110"

Lawn and Garden Tractor, designed for both farm and town. Free door prizes will be offered, plus real orchids for the first 100 ladies attending. A special drawing will be held for a 22-cup percolator. Each one attending who has a John Deere tractor is asked to bring the serial number of their machine and from this group will be chosen the winner of the percolator.

LT. COL. BROWN'S CAREER SPANS FROM HORSE DRAWN FRENCH 75s TO MODERN SPACE AGE

Horse-drawn French 75s and Ft. Sill's artillery ranges are in the ancient history books of America's armed might. But for Lt. Col. Neely R. Brown of 1111 Dawn Drive, Arlington 100, the dusty Oklahoma setting provided an early adventure that later led to aviation and a 30-year Army career spanning the two extremes of U. S. preparedness.

This Jan. 31, Col. Brown, who has served as Army Aviator Representative at the FAA's Southwest Regional office in Fort Worth the past three years, will retire. Neither horses nor aviation will be forgotten in his retirement.

Col. Brown, a native of Hamlin, began his Army career in 1932 as a private in Btry "A", 18th Field Artillery Regiment, progressing the next eight years from riding the wheel horse to chief of a gun section. In 1940 he transferred to the Department of Animal Transport, Field Artillery School, as equestrian instructor and member of the Artillery School Horse Show Team.

The then TSgt. Brown was literally still on horseback when the United States entered World War II but not for long. Until 1944 he served as first sergeant of the Air Training Detachment of the Department of Air Training, which was composed of the men who provided the foundation for today's Army aviation. He entered OCS in 1944 and upon graduation returned briefly to artillery the 428th Artillery Group at Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo.

Col. Brown had his sights on aviation, and the next year he completed liaison pilot training and became the assistant operations officer at Post Field. Overseas in 1946, he joined the 1st Constabulary Brigade in Germany as a pilot and later served with Constabulary's Flight Detachment the first such adaption until organized with all supporting elements.

He returned to the Air Training Detachment in 1949 as an assistant operations officer and worked in extensive tests in firing machine guns, rockets, and recoilless rifles from Army aircraft. Later, working with the Department of Flight Training, he planned, organized, and directed an experimental instrument flight training course. Upon the successful conclusion of the experiment, the course was added to the school curriculum.

Transferred to Korea in 1952, Col. Brown served as the 45th Division artillery aviation officer and later as the Division's aviation officer. Reassigned to Hq, 3rd Army, he assumed duties as chief of the Instrument Division and president of the 3rd Army Instrument Pilot Examining Board.

Duty in Stuttgart, Germany, with the 7th Army's Aviation Training Center followed where he was first director of the Instrument Flight Section and later coordinator and president of the 7th Army's Instrument Pilot Examining Board. He reported for duty

A THOUGHT FOR THE YOUTH

by Rev. Cecil Stowe
pastor, Church of the Nazarene
Phone SP 4-2469

Moses was reminded that he must "Build according to the pattern given thee in the mount." There are certain things that are absolutely essential in the building of Christian character. To build without these is to risk moral and spiritual collapse.

Dr. E. S. Phillips told the following story about an outstanding brush company. The Co. decided to build new buildings to house its offices and factories under the same roof. A beautiful and large building several stories high was erected. One of the executive officials picked out a nice convenient place in the building for his office. But one of the main girders of the building ran through that area, which would mar one corner of it. It was decided to cut the girder out of the room. The office was finished and everyone going through the building commented on the beauty and convenience of the office more than any other room in the building. When the building was finished they put a large reservoir on top of the building just over this office. When the reservoir was half full of water there was a mighty crash like a tornado or an earthquake. The area where the girder was left out collapsed and much of the building was wrecked and many people lost their lives. Dr. Phillips stressed necessity girders in government, home, church and in the Sunday school.

In this message I would like to stress some necessary girders, which should be built into individuals from youth. The first of these girders is truth. Communism is built upon lies, but Christian character is built on truth. "Ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free." These words came from Jesus himself. The Bible is truth. The truth should fill every necessary place in your life.

Another essential girder is faith. The rationalist says he believes nothing but what can be proved in the laboratory. This is not sound because some of our most precious truths we cannot analyze as chemicals, such as God or the soul. Though we cannot understand all things, where the understanding cannot go, we believe. Faith is an essential girder in ones life.

Convictions are essential. There may be a psychotic condition which makes a person amoral, but a person in his right mind knows quite a lot about right and wrong. It is in this area that have our convictions. It is very necessary that we respect our convictions and be true to them. Christian character finds a strong girder in its God given convictions. The pressures of life are bound to come upon every individual and if he does not have strong girders his Christian character could collapse.

So the Christian, like Moses, has a pattern given to build by. Don't leave out the main girders, you will need them.

Alaska has a longer ocean coastline than the United States.

YEARS AGO—

FIVE YEARS AGO:

Members of the Hamlin High School Pied Piper Band are preparing for the district band to be held at Rochester Saturday, according to Mac Fullerton, director.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO:

Annual March of Dimes Campaign in Hamlin has netted more than $500, according to Mrs. V. R. Bond, drive director.

J. B. May, guard on the Hamlin High School basketball squad, was named high point man for the season this week by Jesse Burditt, coach.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO:

High School girl piano pupils of Edwina Gilbert will be presented in a recital Tuesday evening. On the program will be Bobbie Grace Milner, Selma Hassen, Mary Ann Murrell, Twilla Ruth Smith, Velma Lee Boyd, Bernice Beard, Maxie Poe, Maxie Brundage, Ninona Milner, Rosemary Carlton, Anita Anderson, Herbie Faye Johnston, Ruby Jean Young, Anna Laurie Bowdry and Marian Martin.

TOGETHER

Brothers— together — helping one another. We are our brother's keeper and his helper. Comfort, cheer, and encouragement should be given to each other.

There should be a willingness on the part of each to sacrifice for the other.

A Divine Example was sent to us, and these are His words: "This is my commandment, that ye love one another, as I have loved you. Greater love hath no man

than this, that a man lay down

his life for his friends."

You are invited to attend

church Sunday to learn

more of the One who gave

us this commandment.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny, the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

FAIRVIEW NEWS

Another Monday morning has rolled around without any moisture, we are just wondering how long the little wheat can survive the high winds and cold weather without a drink. The weather has been unseasonably warm, but since daylight a norther has blown in that feels as if it might change things.

We were real proud of the attendance of our people at the Workers Conference, held in Stamford First Church, last Tuesday night. Ten members attended, which is one fourth of the whole membership, we were that we were the only church body there that had one fourth of their whole membership. Of course it is to be considered that we could have been the smallest one there. Small or not, we are still proud of our church, we keep all of our obligations up, such as missions of all kinds, we were proud of our Lottie Moon Christmas Offering and this morning we mailed a check to the March of Dimes for $25.00, so we can still brag a little, even if we are few in number.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Murff left Thursday, for Phoenix, Ariz., where they attend graduating exercises for their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Murff, who will receive their Masters Degree from the Institute of Foreign Trade, in that city. Mrs. Murff also reports that she hopes to rock the grand baby, which they have never seen.

Mr. and Mrs. Winson Gray spent last weekend in Alvarado, Texas, returning Monday, with his sister, Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Skipper. They were accompanied by his parents,

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Gray, Anson.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Henry attended funeral services in Rule, Sunday afternoon for Mrs. J. M. Bettis, who was one hundred years old. Sunday's paper carried the write up and Mrs. Bettis' picture, and it seems as if she had spent a very wonderful one hundred years.

Mrs. Tanner and Larry, spent Friday night and Saturday, with Rev. and Mrs. Leverett and children. Saturday they worked on their house, which they are remodeling, making a room from their carport.

It seems that the same old bug was busy Sunday, since both Kristy Leverett and Keenan Wright, went home with high temperature.

Tuesday visitors of the Drake family were Mrs. Viola Woodruff, Vivian, Texas and her sister, Mrs. Virginia Scott, of Anson. Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Scott, Albany, and Mrs. Monroe Potter, Anson, were guests.

Weekend visitors of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Henry were their son, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Henry and Jo, from Elgin, Texas, who were enroute home from a visit with their daughter at Higgins, Texas. Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Clois Henry, Snyder, came over to be with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rosenbaum are keeping their fingers crossed hoping to get a telephone, in the near future. They have been without one since moving where they are, no wiring for an Anson phone since all their friends and business is back Hamlin way, and after such a long wait, they are thinking they will finally get one.

Sunday afternoon, Mrs. Jack Wicker and daughters visited with the Goodwins.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Pryor ate supper with Mr. and Mrs. Winson Gray, last Thursday night. Mrs. Pryor is a sister of Mr. Gray.

Another old landmark in our community is about to disappear. The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fomby, for many years, has been sold to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bristow, who have lived south of Reed Chapel many years. The farm did not sell, just the house, and it will be moved to Hamlin, as soon as the Bristows buy a lot to move it on.

Mr. and Mrs. Winson Gray spent the day Sunday, with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rosenbaum. Mr. and Mrs. David Higgins and two sons, Abilene, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Wainscott and Jimmy. Sunday afternoon visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Eli Bruner, of Hamlin.

We are sorry to report that Mr. Robert Rhoton has spent the last week in Hendrick Hospital in Abilene, but is hoping to be home soon.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Jones visited with Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Joiner a while Sunday afternoon.

The church will observe Family Night, Jan. 31, at the Oil Mill Guest House, in Hamlin, with a supper. We hope to have a nice crowd, ladies will bring either a salad or dessert, other things will be furnished.

MUCH WORK YET TO BE DONE IF SCREWORMS TO CEASE

UVALDE. — Vigorous eradication program by Texas participation in the screwworm farmers and ranchers will be necessary if the Southwest is to become screwworm-free in 1964.

Dolph Briscoe Jr. of Uvalde, said detection of screwworm-infested animals and collection of larvae samples will be even more important this year than it has been in the past. Briscoe is president of the Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation, which spearheaded the drive to collect $3,000,000 from livestockmen to get the eradication program underway nearly two years ago.

Briscoe noted that several weeks have elapsed with no screwworm cases being reported in the five-state eradication area. He cautioned, however, that during cold weather, screwworm flies in the pupae stage can remain embedded in the soil for extended periods; when they emerge during grief warm spells, new rounds of infestations could result.

A single, undetected, unreported case could set the eradication program back for several months, Briscoe said.

"We must always keep up our guard when dealing with this insect," Briscoe warned. "The screwworm fly has shown a remarkable ability of taking advantage of any lapses in vigilance by livestockmen."

He urged livestock producers to watch their animals closely and treat cuts or scratches that could become infested. After several larvae have been collected from infested wounds and mailed to the Mission laboratory for positive identification, wounds should be treated with insecticide.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN — Capitol talk is centering around Texas' new double-standard for voter qualification.

There's a lot of speculation and some concern in political circles.

Ratification by South Dakota will place into effect a Federal constitutional amendment abolishing the poll tax requirement for voting in future federal elections:

1. Texans who want to vote for state and local, as well as federal officials, still must have poll tax receipts or appropriate exemptions.
2. Those who are content to vote for president, vice president, U. S. senator and congressman only, won't have to pay. But still they must get a free poll tax receipt from their tax collector.

The new "registration" requirement for federal elections take effect after the U. S. General Services Administration certifies that the amendment is officially part of the federal constitution.

Thirty days will be allowed voters, after the amendment goes into effect to obtain the special receipts stamped "poll tax not paid". These "tickets" admit one to vote in federal elections. After this year, they must be obtained during the regular poll tax period of October 1-January 31.

For tax collectors and election officials these additional headaches will be presented:

Separate poll lists must be compiled for those who have paid the poll tax and those who have not; non-paying voters must get a ballot containing only the offices and propositions which they are eligible to vote on; all propositions except federal offices must be "locked out" on voting machines; and election returns must show separately those voting on free receipts.

Legal experts think the state law passed in anticipation of the federal amendment's ratification takes care of most emergencies and will prevent chaos, if not confusion. Detailed instructions soon will be sent to county tax collectors by Secretary of State Crawford Martin.

Gov. John Connally, meanwhile, warned Texans that failure to pay the poll tax commits them to "only half a vote in the 1964 elections." Connally joined groups on all sides of the political fences in the final week's campaign to pump up lagging payments.

CONGRESSIONAL RACES UNDISTURBED — Governor Connally anticipates no disruption in congressional district races this year, since the U. S. Supreme Court recessed until February 17 without taking action on pending redistricting cases.

Filing deadline for Texas primaries is February 3. Connally and other state officers do not think the high court will interfere with election machinery already in progress.

Last October a Houston federal court held Texas congressional district boundaries unconstitutional since they are not based on equal population. Republicans brought the suit seeking to recarve the districts in the interest of metropolitan areas. The Houston decision, which has since been stayed pending the state's appeal, ordered all 23 congressmen to run statewide unless the districts are equalized on the basis of population.

APPOINTMENTS ANNOUNCED — Former Secretary of State Tom Reavley of Austin was named by Governor Connally as judge of the newly-created 167th district court of Travis County which goes into operation on June 1.

Among other recent appointments by the governor are:

Dr. John J. McKetta Jr., dean of the University of Texas College of Engineering, to serve on the Southern Interstate Nuclear Board.

Judge Victor H. Lindsey, 72nd District Court, Lubbock, as presiding judge for the Ninth Administrative District, to succeed the late Judge Luther Gribble of Childress.

C. E. Knolle, Jim Wells County dairyman, as chairman of the Texas Animal Health Commission, succeeding Clayton Puckett of Fort Stockton who remains on the commission.

John M. Stemmons of Dallas, re-appointed as a director of the Dallas County Flood Control District.

INVESTIGATING CONTINUING — A half dozen state investigators are looking into activities of Corpus Christi promoter Paul Amos Sandblom, who is charged with dealing in unregistered securities.

Additional charges may be filed against the South Texas financier, according to State Securities Commissioner William King. He has four agents combing the tangled financial affairs of Sandblom, 39, and the state auditor has assigned two more investigators.

A court-appointed receiver of the bankrupt promoter's estate estimates he took in over $25,000,000 but now has assets of only $27,000.

TEXAS COURTS — Court of Criminal Appeals has ordered new trials for two men who had served a total of 43 years in Texas prisons.

Decision was in line with a Supreme Court ruling that all indigent persons accused of crimes are entitled to court-appointed counsel. Texas Law has required designation of such counsel only in capital cases.

Several similar appeals already are before the court here. State Supreme Court heard arguments as to whether the Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission can prevent use of nets and seines in Galveston, Trinity, East and West Bays, in view of a 1957 law apparently permitting use of trammel nets there.

Lower courts have held for fishermen opposing a 1949 commission order against netting.

Supreme Court also agreed to permit a coastal hospital district to request clarification of a state constitutional amendment authorizing such districts to be created by statute. Sweeney Hospital District wants to determine if citizens voting on district bonds have to render personal property for taxation.

Three contempt of legislature cases growing out of investigation of Southwest Conference basketball point-fixing allegations and another arising from slant hole oil probes were postponed by an Austin district court until March.

Texas Civil Judicial Council reported that two-thirds of the nearly 200 State district judges in Texas receive salary supplements from County governments in addition to their $12,000 annual pay from the state.

Supplements range from $600 in some rural areas to $8,000 in Harris County, where district judges make $20,000 a year.

WATER HEARINGS PUT OFF — Hearings on four Brazos River watershed reservoir proposals have been delayed by Texas Water Commission until March 23 to await additional engineering studies.

Projects are: Proctor Reservoir on the Leon River near Comanche; Belton Reservoir on the Leon River in Bell County; Stillhouse Hollow Reservoir on the Lampasas River in Bell County; and Somerville Reservoir on Yegua Creek in Washington County.

Commission agreed to permit diversion of 600 acre feet of water a year from the Proctor Reservoir.

CANDIDATES FILING — With the filing deadline closing in, most statewide incumbents (and some of their opponents) have announced their election plans.

Among those whose hats are in the ring are: Governor Connally (and his GOP opponent C. G. Weakley Jr. of Dallas); Lt. Gov. Preston Smith (opposed by Albert Fuentes Jr. of San Antonio and Republican Horace Houston of Dallas); Agriculture Commissioner John C. White (opposed by Millard Shivers of Waco); State Treasurer Jesse James; Comptroller Robert Calvert; Railroad Commissioner Jim C. Langdon; Supreme Court Associate Justice Ruel C. Walker; Supreme Court Associate Justice Robert W. Hamilton; and Court of Criminal Appeals Judge K. K. Woodley.

Also: Democrat John Van Cronkhite and Republicans George Bush, Dr. Milton Davis and Dr. Robert Morris, all of whom want to dethrone U. S. Sen. Ralph Yarborough who preferred to file late for reelection.

Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr is another who chose to put off announcing his re-election plan until near deadline.

SHORT SNORTS — Benton Musslewhite of Lufkin announced his candidacy for congress, opposing Congressman John Dowdy of Athens in the Democratic primary. . . . Thomas Rote of San Antonio will run for the Republican congressional nomination against John O'Connell both to take on Congressman Henry B. Gonzalez in November. . . . State Reps. Malcolm McGregor of El Paso and George Cook of Odessa will contest for the Democratic nomination against GOP Congressman Ed Foreman, Odessa. . . . A new Laredo school, United High School, is being praised by civil defense officials — It is one of the first underground schools in the nation constructed solely with local funds — and was constructed at lower costs than standard structures.

Governor Connally may visit

it Washington after making a speech to North American paper industry representatives in New York on Feb. 23. . . . State Board of Education set a Feb. 8 hearing on the American Civil Liberties Union's appeal from a Houston school board loyalty oath requirement for users of school buildings after Education Commissioner Dr. J. W. Edgar held the board had authority to exact the oath. . . .

District Court Hears Two Guilty Pleas

Two criminal cases were heard in 104th district court at Anson last week upon pleas of guilty. One drew a prison sentence while the other resulted in a jail term.

Dewey Hatfield was assessed two years in the state penitentiary when he pleaded guilty to swindling with a worthless check. He passed a check for $78.12 at Carl's Outlet in Stamford.

James Freeman Cassity Jr. was given 60 days in county jail after pleading guilty of second offense driving while intoxicated.

Judge Owen B. Thomas passed sentence on Andrew Golden Jr.

EXTENSION SERVICE STUDIES USE OF STUBESTROL IN FEEDING

COLLEGE STATION. — Treating feeder cattle with stubestrol from birth until they are slaughtered may be practical if the animals belong to the same owner during the entire period, says Uel D. Thompson, animal husbandman with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

The beef cattle specialists says that increased gains have resulted from the use of hormones during the nursing, grazing, and feedlot stages.

However, he points out that there are some disadvantages during the whole period by the if the animals are not owned same owner. Calves on test in Texas have shown higher weaning weights when implanted with stubestrol but this extra weight might be undesirable from a price per pound standpoint if the animals were sold as stocker or feeder calves.

According to Texas research hormone implanting of animals that were implanted during the nursing, grazing and feeding periods gained 663 pounds during a 461-day period. Those receiving only two implants gained 657 pounds, those with only one implant gained 616 pounds, and animals with no implants gained 595 pounds during the period, says Thompson.

It, therefore, appears advantageous to implant steers during all three phases if the animals are under the same ownership, concludes Thompson.

STAMFORD PRODUCTION CREDIT ASSOCIATION OBSERVING 30TH ANNIVERSARY THIS YEAR

STAMFORD — The Stamford Production Credit Association, now observing its 30th anniversary as an agricultural financing institution, loaned a total of $10,606,771 in 1963 to its farmer and rancher stockholder-borrowers in an eight-county area of West Texas.

In a year-end report of activities, General Manager J. L. Hill Jr. of Stamford reported the association's 1963 loan volume increased more than $1,500,000 over the 1962 figure of $9,085,340. Association assets total $5,981,988 and net worth is $1,325,195.

Agricultural outlook for 1964 is dependent, as always, on moisture, or the lack of it, Hill pointed out. "Moisture conditions are fair, but small grain has provided very little grazing during the winter because of limited moisture and cold weather.

Insects have become a major factor in cotton production in this territory, Hill said. "It is hoped with the early 1963 harvest, resulting in earlier destruction of cotton stalks, the insect population will decline in 1964," he declared.

"Our 1963 loan volume was a new record for the association," Hill continued, "and it is expected that it will continue to increase in 1964." He pointed out that the number of farm and ranch operators served by the association also increased during 1963 despite the continuing decline of agricultural operators.

The Stamford Production Credit Association is owned and operated in its entirety by 1,133 farmer and rancher stockholder-borrowers in Dickens, Haskell, Jones, Kent, King, Knox, Shackelford and Stonewall counties.

The association was chartered on January 10, 1934, and since that date has loaned more than $130,858,000 to farmers and ranchers in its territory.

"We have but one reason for our existence," Hill explained, "and that is to provide a dependable and adequate source of agricultural credit at the lowest possible cost."

The 36 associations serving all 254 Texas counties receive their loan funds through the monthly sale of debentures on the nation's commercial money market by the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank of Houston, discount agency for the Texas associations.

Accent on Health

J. E. PEAVY, M.D., Commissioner of Health

AUSTIN — "A lone man's companion... a sad man's cordial... and a chilly man's fire... there's no herb like unto it under the canopy of heaven."

That's James Russell Lowell's personal reflections toward tobacco or cigarettes.

But medical science points out some disconcerting parallels of smoking to health.

With this in mind, the Division of Cancer and Heart of the Texas State Department of Health is determined that today's generation should have the facts when confronted with the decision of smoke or not to smoke.

A first and basic point is that smoking is a habit—similar to an addiction. "The habitual use of tobacco," according to the recent report by the Surgeon General by the Advisory Committee, is related primarily to psychological and social drives, reinforced and perpetuated by the pharmacological actions of nicotine on the central nervous system.

Secondly, teenagers should be aware of the relationship between smoking and health.

Lung cancer, heart and circulatory diseases are linked to the smoking habit. And statistics show that these diseases increase in proportion to the number of cigarettes smoked per day.

Teenagers are challenged to statistics show that these diseases add it all up. A smoke lasts about six minutes, but cuts ten minutes off your lifetime.

Teenagers are further advised that the habit decreases physical endurance and ability, slows thinking processes and discolors fingers and teeth.

Inevitably, the question arises... why do teen agers start smoking anyway?

Teenagers say, according to recent studies, they are lured by the persuasive voice of advertisers. They also start because the gang does it, in search of security and stability and in imitation of people they admire.

Parental example appears to be an important contributing example. When both parents smoke, a teenager stands a 40 percent chance of taking up the habit. But when neither

Witnesses' Hold Training Session

Jehovah's Witnesses' 3-day training program in Llano, Texas, was climaxed Sunday when H. A. Fetzik supervisor, spoke on the subject, "The Bible Triumphs in a Scientific World."

In speaking to the 458 assembled, Fetzik said, "While science improves the living standards, it creates a neurotic age of anxiety and tension."

"The Bible," Fetzik said, "triumphs over science in that life has always existed in the Creator; it gives the solution to life's problems today, and it sets forth God's kingdom as the means of man's eternal blessings."

C. W. Sarakin, circuit supervisor, in his closing talk, "Speaking the Truth Unites," said, "The truth alone unites mankind and leads to salvation." The assembly carried the theme, "Feed My Little Sheep."

The analysis, that was made of the 15 congregations, revealed a "personal schedule" was the general weakness. It was shown by talks, demonstrations and illustrations that a personal schedule will make room for regular ministerial activity and meeting attendance, said W. Robert Edwards of Hamlin presiding minister of the Stamford congregation.

Texas Circuit No. 12 covers and are from Wichita Falls to Fredericksburg and from Abilene to Mineral Wells.

PHILOSOPHER SEES THREAT TO NATIONAL SECURITY IN POSSIBLE TELEVISION STRIKE

Editor's note: The Neida Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route 1 views a certain possibility with alarm this week. We guess that's what he's doing.

Dear editor:
Whether we cut the national budget or not, whether we get a tax cut, whether medicare passes, whether the Panama situation is settled, whether France recognizes Red China or not... these things pile into insignificance when you stop to consider the biggest question in this country.

It is: do television announcers have the right to strike and shut off television? According to an item I read on an inside page of a big daily paper which I found on the road near my house where somebody had left it after using it to lie on while getting a jack under his car to fix a flat, which incidentally shows how a big newspaper can underplay the news — putting item like this on an inside page — there's a union of television announcers and they are talking about striking for higher pay.

A spokesman for the television industry said such a strike could shut down national television for several days.

This is what I'm talking about. I do not believe the American people can survive several days without television.

It's a threat to national security, and Congress ought to drop everything else if it happens to have anything in its hands at the time and attack this crisis before it arrives.

You leave 150 million people at loose ends every day and night for a week, especially in an election year, and there's no telling what would happen. If I was a Congressman, for example, the last thing I'd want is to have the people thinking for a week on how long it takes Congress to act.

I don't know what the solution is, but anything that keeps one program from following another every night in the year is an open invitation to unrest and possibly widespread thinking and if Congress wants to keep lumbering along it had better stop long enough to keep television on the air.

A Guns-mokless, Wagon-trainless, As the World Turnsless week is beyond the human capacity to endure.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Farm Bureau Week to Open Member Drive

WACO — "Farm Bureau Week" in Texas will mark the beginning of an intensive campaign to boost membership in the state's largest farm organization, according to Wayne Little, director of organization for the Texas Farm Bureau. Three area-wide membership rallies will be held Feb. 3 in Lubbock, Dallas, and San Antonio to kick off the organization's 1964 enrollment drive.

Gov. John Connally has designated the week of Feb. 3-8 as "Farm Bureau Week" to point up the importance of agriculture to the over-all economy and the necessity of having "an informed, prosperous, and organized agriculture in our state."

Little said that drive plans are aimed at hitting a new high membership record this year which will make the twelfth consecutive year for the organization to gain members. Another goal, he said, is to regain the standing of being the largest state Farm Bureau in the South and fourth largest in the nation, a position that was lost to Alabama last year when that organization edged ahead of Texas in membership.

Purpose of the three rallies is to provide the inspiration and information to accomplish the goals, he said. All county Farm Bureau leaders and volunteer membership workers are being encouraged to attend the meeting nearest them.

According to one scientist, the human brain could store about 50 times more information than is contained in the 9,000 volumes of the Library of Congress.

Coming Beverage Quality Evaporated Milk

A new evaporated milk tastily enough to drink has been developed by the U. S. Department of Agriculture and is now being considered for commercial production.

It can be made at a concentration of either two, or three times that of whole milk and dilutes to a high-quality beverage resembling fresh milk in flavor and color.

Select Vegetables For Their Vitamins:

To get the most vitamins for your vegetable dollar, remember these tips from food economists in the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Agricultural Research Service:

You get several times as much vitamin A value from bright-orange, mature carrots as from pale-colored, young ones. Even so, young carrots are a good source of vitamin A.

Friendship HD

The Friendship Home Demonstration Club met Friday in the home of Mrs. Fred Carpenter with eleven members present.

Mrs. O. L. Rich joined the club as a new member.

The program was presented by Mrs. M. S. Johnson on what to do in case of an automobile accident.

Mrs. Bonnie Dingham gave the opening exercise on famous people who were born in January.

Mrs. J. E. McCoy, council delegate, gave the council report. She was also elected as delegate to the district meeting to be held in Crowell in April.

Mrs. Carpenter served cake and coffee.

Choose deep-orange varieties of sweet potatoes for highest vitamin A value.

The dark-green leaves of leafy vegetables are richer in nutrients, particularly vitamin A and C, than light-green leaves. The coarse outer leaves for head lettuce contain higher concentrations of vitamins than the inner, tender leaves. Use the outer leaves whenever possible.

Peppers are high in vitamins A and C.

If the tops of beets are attached and still tender when you buy them, cook them. They are rich in vitamin A.

Turnip greens, kale, and collards are good sources of riboflavin as well as of vitamin A and C. Lima beans, peas, and young cowpeas (including black-eye peas) contain appreciable amounts of thiamine and protein. The leafy parts of collard greens, turnip greens and kale have much more vitamin A value than the stems or midribs do. So, if you remove the fibrous stems and midribs acceptable to the family, the loss in nutrients is not serious.

Make full use of vine ripened tomatoes in summer when they are plentiful and inexpensive. Tomatoes that ripen on the vine out-of-doors in summer sunlight are twice as rich in vitamin C as those grown in green houses in winter.

Vitamins A and C are needed regularly for growth and health body tissues, says Mrs. Newberry. And vegetables are a primary source of these nutrients.

Other suggestions:

In trimming cabbage, remember that the core, as well as the leaves, is high in vitamin C.

Broccoli leaves have much more vitamin A than the stalks or flower buds. If broccoli leaves are tender when you get them home, plan to eat them. Keep them cool and moist until they're ready for use.

Now that everybody's standing, let's all go to the Buick Sports Car Rally.

Really.

It would be a shame to waste this chance to drive one of Buick's lively sport models, wouldn't it? Especially considering your Buick dealer's so close, and the price is so nice. That's what the Sports Car Rally is all about. And they're all luxurious enough to make you wonder why anybody'd settle for a two-seater. A finely tuned production 340 hp Wildcat with a skilled driver scored the highest miles per gallon in the economy test of Class I—high performance V-8's—at the Pure Oil Performance Trials at Daytona Beach, Florida. (So who's surprised? Not Wildcat owners.)

"How could a date have seemed so important?"

When your mind's not on your driving, you're dangerous! Your car can't think. That's your department—the driver's. So think about this. When your mind is on anything else but your driving, anything can happen—including an accident! Last year, nearly 37,000 Americans died on our highways. Many might still be alive if they or others had kept their minds on the road. Driving demands your full attention, so stay alert—and stay alive!

When traffic laws are strictly enforced, deaths go DOWN!

$2.99 and $4.99

Hope we have your size.

Every time a customer looks at this, they say, "I believe I'll look around a little more." Anyway you'd be just as well to pass this up as you would probably go berserk trying to sew with it. If you would like to try some of this reg. $3.98 goods you may have your choice for $1.98 vd.

INFANTS' WEAR

In this grouping we have infants' pajamas, toddlers dresses, sets, etc. Just a messy looking bunch of odds & ends, but anyway a child this small shouldn't be able to say too much about how bad they are

COSTUME JEWELRY

There may be something in this group that you want, but we doubt it as the colors look terrible and all the sets are broken, but you may be interested at

CHILDREN'S DRESS COATS

No one likes to take the blame for these, either the salesman talked too fast or the buyer's eyes were bigger than the selling ability of the entire force—anyway we have sizes 3 to 6x reg. $12.95 for and sizes 7 to 14 for

$9.00

These 10 sets left are beginning to seem like a member of the family. They were originally priced at $5.98 & mostly 10's and 12's left. If you would care to help us out on these, we agree never to buy any more children's sets this expensive.
